The German Chocolate Cake is a National Holiday, celebrated on June 24th. Sam German created the new dark baking chocolate in 1852 for the American Baker's Chocolate Company. The American Bakers Chocolate Company named the Bakers German Sweet Chocolate in his honor. Mrs. George Clay published a recipe in the Dallas Morning News on June 3, 1957, for the German's Chocolate Cake. During the reprints process someone dropped the apostrophe that created the new famous name, the German Chocolate Cake was the new creation for the company. Enjoy your favorite cake on this special day, and for forget to share with family or a friend.
